Mad, But "Ours Tenderly."

The following letter explains itself: SALISBURY MO. NOV-7-99.

Mr. C. P. Vandiver

Keytesville, Mo

DEAR SIR I noticed in your last weeks paper an article in regard to F. M. Phelps as being cited to appear before the Probate Court in Keytesville Mo and I think you have done me an injustice. such things as a Mans Private Business has no Place in the PUBLIC BRESS. The Truth of the matter is this Prof. Bradley Sama Tramon got around John, Fitzpatrick and nowing that he was good pay and got the Job of doing what has been done, and neather of them ever said a word to me about it. I did not no a thing about it until the 29th of October.

S. B. Elliott Delivered the Citation the 30 Oct and I saw uncle John Patrick he said he had ben to Hasty and went to Prof. Bradley and wanted him to stop but Brd said he could not do it as that was the onley way to dispose of it so Prof Bradly went on.

Fearing you cant understand I will write you a letter by Parable

Prof Bradly and Sama are liken unto two Hounds wanting something to eate so the started out through the country and it being dark they ran out to uncle John Fitzpatrick and loped over into the back yard so they went smelling around and run onto ant Beca Stop Bucket and Brd nosed around it til he shuveld the lid of and in to it he went, being verry hungry and Sama dropped a round as much as to say that he would like to have some to and uncle John hearing something out in the Bac way went out and seeing wat it was, told Prof Bradley that he had eaten enough but Brd said no no there being Plenty here I can not it is the onley way to dispose of it. Now Br Charley unto yo I wold say that you can stop your Paper do not send it to me again or I will send it Back

Yours roderly

F. M. PHELPS

So F. M. Phelps of near Salisbury, a gentleman we have heretofore held in high estbem, has fallen out with the COURIER because it published, under the caption of "Probate Pointers" last week, an item to the effect that Mr. Phelps had been cited to appear at the November term of probate court and show cause why he should not be required to execute a new bond as guardian and curator of the heirs of Mary I. McDaniel.

The COURIER always publishes the news just as it finds it. It plays no favorites, and if Mr. Phelps' sensibilities have been wounded we cannot help it. We fear the gentleman is unduly sensitive.
